DETAILED ACTION

The indication of allowability of claims 1-17, 20-27 in the Office action mailed 7-17-03 is hereby withdrawn.

The reissue oath/declaration filed with this application is defective because it fails to identify at least one error which is relied upon to support the reissue application. See 37 CFR 1.175(a)(1) and MPEP § 1414.

The declaration is unclear as to what the error in the original patent claims actually is. For instance, pp. 1-2 of the declaration make reference to claim 1 not claiming a self-propelled lateral sewer pipe inspection apparatus. Yet, the claims provided to correct the alleged error do not recite that the apparatus is self-propelled.

Claims 1-17, 20-27 are rejected as being based upon a defective reissue declaration under 35 U.S.C. 251 as set forth above. See 37 CFR 1.175.

The nature of the defect(s) in the declaration is set forth in the discussion above in this Office action.

Claims 22-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

In the prosecution of the patent, Applicant amended (on 4-26-99) claim 1 to overcome a then outstanding art rejection. Reissue claims 22-27 entirely omits any limitations that were added (on 4-26-99) to claim 1 to overcome that then outstanding art rejection. Such omission in a reissue claim, even if it includes other limitations making the reissue claim narrower than the patent claim in other aspects, is impermissible recapture.
